Who are we?

We are one of the leading law firms practicing in Nicosia since 1966. Through our commitment, knowledge, and expertise we have emerged into one of the most successful and highly valued law firms on the island, providing a complete scope of legal services exclusively focused on international business practice.

At Demetrios A. Demetriades LLC, we recognize the demands of the current international business environment and are prepared to identify promptly our client's needs and through our knowledge and expertise in international business practice, we are dedicated to provide our professional legal services tailored to meet our client's requirements and needs in a cost-effective manner.

Practice on Intellectual Property

Our practice is always diversified according to the developments and the needs of our international clients, like the need to protect the clients' intellectual property rights.

Our skilled and experienced staff can assist in the following:

- Trademark registration
- Trademark search
- Renewal of Trademark
- Assignment of Trademark
- Filing of objection to the Registrar of Companies and Official Receiver
- Change of name and address of the Proprietor of the Trademark
- Disputes arising from the use of Trademarks (Trademark infringement)

Registration of Trademarks and follow-up procedures

From our side we would like to inform you that we have a strong IP Department Team, dealing with registration of Trademarks in Cyprus, very well-educated staff following the registration procedure before the Registrar of Trademarks in Cyprus, and upon receiving proper instructions we will proceed to register.

Litigation: Infringement/ "Passing of" Actions

In addition, we have a strong litigation team that is ready at short notice to file any application to the Court to protect the IP rights and Trademarks and to restrain any unlawful user of labels, signs etc. in a "passing of" action against infringement of those rights.

We would like to develop such relationship with you and even to exchange visits in order to develop our relationship further.

In case of any query regarding Trademarks or any other legal matter, please feel free to contact us.
